

Funeral and Memorial Service Menus

When a loved one passes on, it is a very emotional and overwhelming time for families. Slavin in the Kitchen Catering will try to lessen your stress by assisting you with your memorial service or post funeral service catering. Because these times often require family members to make multiple decisions regarding funeral arrangements and memorial services, we have created a menu of offerings for morning brunches or luncheon receptions. These are events that require the proper respect and care. We at Slavin in the Kitchen catering are highly experienced in providing funeral catering services for both large and small gatherings. Our highly dedicated team will offer your family caring and reliable support to meet all your personal needs. Keep in mind that you may always customize a funeral menu to meet your specific needs or wishes. We are pleased to serve you during this very difficult time.
